Contact Report [ ] on 28 July 1970.

1. On the morning of 28 July, I called Sam to check in with him after being away on TDY for almost 6 weeks. He sounded a bit upset at not being contacted during this period, so I dashed out to his [ ] home to explain what had happened and set him at ease.
2. It was plain to see that the trip had changed him. He is now a bit presumptuous, cocky, and know it all James Bond. He told me all sorts of wild stories about being tailed [ ] "by 7 or 8 [ ] agents," and leading them on long "8 or 9 mile hikes [ ] agents were also "watching" him on the day he was in [ ] and on the short layover his Pan Am plane had [ ] on his way home. At no time, however, was he molested by these "agents."
3. The [ ] surveillance continued -so Sam says- [ ] "About the second night after I got home," c. 14-15 June, a car parked across the street and a little to the rear of his house "after it got dark." When Sam got into his car and went to the gas station, the car -described as looking like a white Volkswagen, without headlights on- followed Sam's car on his short trip in the neighborhood and back to his home. He could not make out the physical description of the driver of the VW. He has never seen this car again.
4. The only other suspicious individual near his home, was "a tall, thin man," (described as about 5-11 to 6 ft and 170 lbs; black hair; no distinguishing features visible; once wearing slacks and white shirt, another time wearing a suit). This individual showed up across the street from his home "just as the sun had gone down, several evenings during the first week that I got home." (c. 14-18 June) The man just walked past the front back and forth a few times and appeared to have his car around the corner of Sam's house. He could not identify the car or anything else about the man.
5. Again, during the first week after his return Sam received several telephone calls where no one would answer when the phone was picked up, or the person calling would say, "sorry, wrong number." Sam has not experienced any other suspicious incidents after the first week home [ ] I should note that Sam does not talk of these incidents with fear, but rather in the vein of a paperback detective story.
6. Sam would not admit that he enjoyed himself somewhat [ ] as a tourist, although he did not deny that he stayed in a luxury hotel, ate as well as drank well, saw the sites and even went to a night club, all on the house. He went so far as to say that if he had "known" it was going to be like this, I never would have gone." Yet, in the same breath, he told "William" that he would be back in [ ] in September. Of course, Sam would go again if we asked him,

H/Watt to CIAA-2231

"but, only to help my country." (With "Patriots" like Sam, how can we lose.)

7. Sam is most anxious to start some correspondence to "William." He says "William" asked him to send him some photos of Cape Kennedy and some smoked shrimp. Sam wants to know if we want to supply him with photos of the Cape that he can send. Sam states he will write anything we wish. I promised to check out the status of the case with my office and [ ] to see what course of action they deem should be initiated.
8. Modesty not being one of his greatest virtues Sam rambled and rambled about the "secrets" he got out of "William" and passed on to the [ ] c/o. I went along with him and complimented him on a job well done; which is true. But, he was not satisfied with my plaudits, he wanted to know "What Washington said?" To which I said, "everyone, Washington, [ ] and Miami thought you did an excellent job and we are most grateful for your cooperation." He liked that very much; you could see it in the smile on his face. He tries to make it sound like it was a great ordeal and sacrifice on his part to go [ ] to see "William." but he cannot hide his anxiety to get on the next plane [ ] and the good life there.
9. I pointed out that "William" is now back in [ ] and there is no indication of when he will return. Nevertheless, Sam feels he should write him "because the letter will be sent to [ ] to him." I assured him that I would get a reading on this matter and have an answer for him sometime next week. At that time, I promised to take him and his close friend [ ] to lunch. Sam gave me an extensive and expensive expense account of his trip. I will attempt to decipher it at the close of this report.
10. We ended the meeting on very cordial terms. He was not so mad at not being contacted so much as he is dying to get back on the gravy train, and so much time has passed by without word to or from "William." Sam asked for some way in which he can contact us "right away" if "William" notifies him "that he's ready to jump. You know when he jumps he won't have much time." I pointed out that at present "William" is in [ ] and the prospects of him defecting [ ] right now are very slim indeed. We would, however, take this into consideration after "William" returns to [ ] or another foreign post. We will be seeing each other next week to clear up the accounting (we owe him money, he says) and have lunch.

Henry S. PACHANKIS.

1. [redacted] arrived [redacted] on 30 May and was met by the undersigned at 1700 hours in his hotel room. [redacted] does not know the true name of the undersigned. He quickly complained of his flight and said never before has he flown on a "cattle plane" and avowed never again to fly [redacted] PACHANKIS correctly assessed him as a querulous person. The undersigned was mentally prepared for his comments regarding the flight, the bad food served on the plane, and, much later in the week, the hotel room, [redacted] in general and, because of the language barrier, his one-plate diet of steak and potatoes. He said his return trip would be through London where he expected to fly the Boeing 747 to New York. SACODER interrupted him and said that we had other plans for him and his only reply was "oh!". Beneath his rough exterior and use of the vernacular, which is indeed spicy, [redacted] is a loveable person who has an infinite number of anecdotes. Although he had no children, he gives the impression of being a good, grandfatherly type who could easily put anyone in a nostalgic mood. After leaving the room we continued the conversation in the hotel bar. SACODER reviewed the cover stories and went through a series of do's and don'ts; i.e., do try to establish a channel between [redacted] and AMAUTO-1; don't hesitate to accept an invitation to visit AMAUTO-1's office, failing all other means to meet with him; do try to invite him out alone to a restaurant for dinner or to a bar for a drink; do accept an invitation to have dinner at his home; don't hint to your sponsorship for this trip. He had no objections to the cover stories, but embellished them to his liking with appropriate references to his deceased spouse, the fact that [ ] was always jealous of AMAUTO-1 and his doctor's orders to take a vacation to relieve his mind of the recent death of his wife. After several rehearsals [ ] would have convinced anyone of the purpose of his visit to Europe. He did an outstanding job throughout the operation.

2. On the evening of 30 May [ ] and SACODER dined at an out-door restaurant. We spent another three hours rehearsing his cover story, reviewing the objectives and trying to anticipate questions AMAUTO-1 might ask during their meeting together. [ ] was given the following objectives:

a. The foremost objective was for [ ] to renew and improve upon his relationship with AMAUTO-1, to the extent that they would be able to reminisce, over a prolonged period, about the relationship that existed before AMAUTO-1's departure from the United States.

b. To exchange addresses and telephone numbers for the purpose of sending occasional greetings to one another.

c. To invite AMAUTO-1 (and his wife, if necessary) to dinner, at his expense.

d. To ascertain AMAUTO-1's future plans.

e. To assess AMAUTO-1's feelings toward the United States and toward his own government.

f. [ ] to talk favorably about the United States using himself as an example, (the son of immigrant parents who made good in business); to emphasize the opportunities available to anyone with imagination, ambition and aggressiveness.

g. If the opportunity presented itself, to show sympathy for the apparent failure of the Cuban Government to reach the 10 million ton sugar goal and to ask whether the non-fulfillment of this goal would adversely affect the economic development of Cuba. It was our hope that sometime during the conversation AMAUTO-1 would volunteer to discuss his country's economic situation which might have opened the conversation to further exploitation by [ ]

h. Parallel with objective e. above [ ] was instructed to ask (provided an appropriate opening appeared in the conversation) AMAUTO-1 for his personal comments on the Vietnam issue and anti-war demonstrations in the United States and abroad. We were trying to draw out AMAUTO-1's personal analysis of the U.S. position vis-a-vis the war in Vietnam and to compare his statements with the Cuban Government position.

3. Although [ ] was determined to see AMAUTO-1 even if he had to camp outside AMAUTO-1's home, we reminded him that because of AMAUTO-1's position, he might refuse to see [ ] in his home, but that [ ] should not hesitate to accept any reasonable invitation to be with AMAUTO-1. When [ ] approached AMAUTO-1's home we had a stroke of luck. First, one of AMAUTO-1's children was in the front yard playing, and two, the door to the driveway was open, thus [ ] was able to enter the front yard. Under separate cover for C WHD and COS, Miami we are forwarding photographs taken during the initial meeting between [ ] and AMAUTO-1. The pictures were taken from the home of one of our staffers. We believe they highlight the events leading to the reunion of these two old friends. [ ]

4. During the conversation in AMAUTO-1's home, [ ] began his deliberate softening of AMAUTO-1 with such comments as "you know Bill, Julio was jealous of you because I treated you like a brother. I didn't want you to return to Cuba, but I couldn't stop you. We were all in favor of Castro." Bill admitted here that [ ] was a good friend and enjoyed his job and the pay was good, but added that "I had to go. I was in the States [ ] added "you know, Bill, I never was blessed with any children; you were like a son to me, but when I heard you died in the mountains in Cuba, I blamed myself for letting you go." Bill replied that he was wounded on his left side. [ ] explained that if AMAUTO-1 was in the States [ ] could have arranged for him to remain in the States by getting assistance from some police and detective friends [ ] repeated his delight to again see AMAUTO-1 and how happy he was to know he is alive.

5. Moments after entering the house, AMAUTO-1 invited him to have breakfast. [ ] refused, but settled for a beer. AMAUTO-1 excused himself, went to the phone and called an unidentified party, [ ] could not understand the conversation, but [ ] and Station officers suspect that he called his [ ] or one of his colleagues, possibly advising him of [ ] presence. (It is also possible that AMAUTO-1 called [ ] to advise the duty officer that he (AMAUTO-1) would be leaving for the Amusement Park. There were no QUTIMID reports supporting this theory.) The fact that the telephone call was made soon after [ ] arrival leads us to suspect that the call was made to establish a surveillance of [ ] and AMAUTO-1 at the park. As noted in references [ ] was specifically briefed on this possibility and was alerted to report any absence of AMAUTO-1 from the room.

6. We were confident that AMAUTO-1 would be the first to ask the cover questions, but instead his wife asked both questions: What are you doing here? and How did you get our address? [ ] repeated the cover story and at the end of the second - how did you get our address - AMAUTO-1 said that it was quite possible. (AMAUTO-1's wife remained cool and suspicious throughout the initial confrontation, but later reacted warmly toward [ ] As we noted above, [ ] embellished the story to his satisfaction. He also shed a few tears when he repeated the story of his wife's death and the doctor's recommendation that he take a vacation. He continued his softening approach of AMAUTO-1 by adding: "Bill, when my wife took ill some years ago, she asked me to divest myself of all business interests, but if you were there with me, Bill, you could have handled my affairs and you might have been a millionaire today." [ ] sensed that AMAUTO-1 and his wife were moved by this comment and were literally drooling with the thought of being millionaires. The wife asked a number of questions regarding [ ] wealth, his real estate activity, collection of silver and his success in general. The wife was astounded with the simple explanation of how [ ] went about building and financing apartment houses. [ ] made a suggestion that AMAUTO-1 invest in silver because the scarcity of this metal would eventually raise the market value. He explained to AMAUTO-1 that he was collecting all silver coins stamped prior to 1965. The next couple of hours were spent at the amusement park where, on arrival, AMAUTO-1 steered [ ] to a cafeteria near the main entrance. In short order two men arrived on the scene, friends of AMAUTO-1. They were introduced to [ ] but [ ] could not remember the names. After a few moments a couple arrived and they, too, were introduced to [ ] [ ] could not identify the persons he met from the photographs in our mug book.) AMAUTO-1's friends took a number of photographs of [ ] and AMAUTO-1 and after a short while together, they left. The conversation at the park was aimless. They discussed the kids and [ ] repeated how delighted and proud he was to know that one of AMAUTO-1's children was named [ ] - his namesake. AMAUTO-1 had a wide grin while SAMKO was talking about [ ] He asked AMAUTO-1 about the oldest boy. AMAUTO-1 replied that the oldest was [ ] studying civil engineering. [ ] suggested to AMAUTO-1 that he should give his children the best education and have them stay away from politics and political courses but concentrate on the professional fields, engineering, law, medicine, etc. AMAUTO-1 admitted that his intention was to keep his children away from a political career. [ ] said he would send [ ] some commercial slides of Cape Kennedy and other points of interest in Florida.

7. While still at the park [ ] said he hoped AMAUTO-1 would get an assignment [ ] so that AMAUTO-1 would have an opportunity to visit SAMKO [ ] AMAUTO-1 was thrilled with this idea and [ ] offer. [ ] said his eyes glowed while AMAUTO-1 pondered this possibility. [ ] talked about his home and the beach nearby, the climate, his new car, etc. [ ] comment on AMAUTO-1's reaction was interesting. He said that beneath AMAUTO-1's communist exterior lies the capitalist. Before leaving the park (AMAU-1 had to leave for the airport where he had an appointment to see ANECRU-1), [ ] said, "Bill, if you ever need me, I'll never let you down. You have a good friend who loves you a lot." [ ] said he noted some emotional change on Bill's face after this comment.

8. [ ] was met 48 hours after the contact with AMAUTO-1 in the event AMAUTO-1 decided to put a surveillance on [ ]. No surveillance was noted when [ ] was picked up, but on entering the car [ ] suggested that SACODER keep an eye out for a tail. We drove around town for fifteen minutes. Certain that no one was tailing us, we drove to a Station safehouse which has an underground garage. [ ] was visibly excited and was enjoying the "cloak and dagger" role, but he was nervous. He was highly impressed with the garage entrance to the safehouse and commended us for being so shrewd and security conscious. He wanted to know whose apartment it was and SACODER said that it was his private "pad". His comment was: "you sure live it up well." As PACHANKIS aptly explained in one of his reports, [ ] temper does rise. He was highly excited during the meeting because he was asked to leave the hotel room. Since the reservation was made for four days, he was asked to leave. He pleaded with SACODER to do something to keep him in the hotel room or risk losing the opportunity to lunch with AMAUTO-1 because AMAUTO-1 was to call him at the hotel on Saturday, 6 June. SACODER admitted the error but added that there was a simple solution if he could not convince the hotel management to allow him to stay a few more days. SACODER suggested that he should explain to the manager that 1) his laundry had not yet returned and 2) he was expecting an important phone call on Saturday and that there was no way of getting in touch with the caller. Failing this, SACODER offered another simple solution. Since [ ] and AMAUTO-1 had not yet exchanged addresses, [ ] could return to the AMAUTO-1 home and give the maid a note advising AMAUTO-1 that he had to change hotels. [ ] admitted that he told AMAUTO-1 about the possibility of having to leave the hotel because his reservation ended soon.) [ ] did not at first accept this logic, but SACODER explained that he (SACODER) could not plead with the hotel management on [ ] behalf. This was poor security. [ ] accepted this and after a glass of scotch and water admitted that the solution was indeed simple, but he was terribly excited at first.

[redacted] Another of his complaints was the way we controlled his purse strings [redacted]. We put him in a hotel used by many travel agencies which SACODER thought was comfortable, but SAMKO would have preferred the Hilton. He complained of the fact that he was dipping into his own money and was not happy with the idea of keeping receipts (aside from the hotel bills and the airline ticket, [redacted] probably did not keep any receipts). He was advanced $280 [redacted] which will be T/A'd [redacted]. [redacted] should pick up his full tab and might consider buying him a case of scotch as a token of our appreciation for his accomplishments on the assignment, but PACHANKIS probably has learned that a couple of pats on [redacted] back is sufficient to reward him.

10. Contact was again made with [redacted] on the eve of his possible luncheon engagement with AMAUTO-1. We again reviewed the objectives and he was given a defensive briefing as suggested by WH/Miami. He was told that PACHANKIS probably would not visit with him for about two weeks after his return and that he should not attempt to get in touch with PACHANKIS. He understood why this was necessary and agreed with the briefing. If a luncheon could be arranged, [redacted] was asked to concentrate on the following: (in addition to the requirements he was given before his first meet with AMAUTO-1)

- A. Try to ascertain AMAUTO-1's future, his ambitions, his next possible assignment.
- B. If possible engage him in a conversation regarding the United States to get his reaction toward our problems.
- C. Build up your successes and reflect on how AMAUTO-1 might have achieved similar goals had he remained in the United States.
- D. Be alert for any opening to inject questions relating to the Cuban economy vis-a-vis the failure of the "ten million", but to avoid criticism for this failure, and show sympathy.

11. [redacted] had no difficulty convincing the hotel management that he had to remain in the hotel until Saturday, 6 June. He spoke directly with the manager and told the manager that he was planning to leave on 7 June [redacted] and would stay at a sister hotel and asked the manager to make reservations for him. The crisis had passed.

12. On the morning of 6 June AMAUTO-1's wife called [ ] and, in English, said that her husband would pick him up at 1400 hours in front of the hotel. At the appointed hour, AMAUTO-1's [ ] vehicle pulled up in front of the hotel driven by a chauffeur. AMAUTO-1 greeted [ ] in front of the hotel and after exchanging a few words, they departed for a nearby restaurant. [ ] was too preoccupied to make note of the name of the restaurant. We decided against any surveillance during the AMAUTO-1 [ ] meeting to avoid alerting AMAUTO-1 and/or his staff that the [ ] visit [ ] was pre-planned.)

13. At lunch [ ] and AMAUTO-1 again reminisced. They discussed the following:

- A. In one of his references, AMAUTO-1 said that men like him are needed [ ] and noted that he would probably die fighting [ ] which is young and aggressive, but that some day it will be a great country; that he has been fighting all his life to relieve the oppressed and repeated that he will die fighting. (It is interesting to note [ ] reaction here to AMAUTO-1's statement. When [ ] first visited AMAUTO-1 on 31 May, he was certain that under the facade of being a devoted revolutionary AMAUTO-1 was indeed a capitalist at heart, but at this meeting [ ] modified his comment by adding that it appears AMAUTO-1 is truly a communist, who maintains strong convictions of the righteousness of the revolution. The above comments by AMAUTO-1 produced the peg on which [ ] could have questioned the veracity of AMAUTO-1's statement on freeing the oppressed, but he was not specifically instructed to maintain a polemic argument on the rights and wrongs of the revolution because we felt this objective was secondary to the re-establishment of a relationship between these two old friends. A future meeting might include the exchange of an objective appraisal of the revolution as seen by [ ]
- B. AMAUTO-1 proposed that [ ] act as an intermediary for the sale of [ ] sea food in the United States. He explained that [ ] have a large fishing fleet in the Canary Islands. The fish caught is processed in the Canary Islands and can be shipped to the United States as a product of Spain. [ ] AMAUTO-1 added, [ ] you're like a father to me, please think about it (the agency)? AMAUTO-1 explained that [ ] could earn about $200,000 a year in commission based on sales of $2,000,000. [ ] said he would think about it, but privately to SACODER he said that he had no intention to disturb his retirement with a fishy business.

- C. [ ] gave AMAUTO-1 a new Kennedy half-dollar which delighted AMAUTO-1.

D. [ ]

[ ] repeated his desire to show AMAUTO-1 his [ ] home and spend a few days at the beach with him. AMAUTO-1 again was visibly moved with this idea.

- E. [ ] restated that "Bill, you have a good friend, don't forget it. You are like a son."
- F. They exchanged addresses. [ ] had printed his address, but AMAUTO-1 asked him to write it on another piece of paper. AMAUTO-1 reasoned that he wanted it written to understand it better, but we believe he will use the sample to compare it with letters [ ] might send in the future. They promised to write to each other. [ ] was given AMAUTO-1's private address, not that of [ ]
- G. AMAUTO-1 regretted that [ ] had to leave so soon because he would have enjoyed showing [ ] the [ ] interior. [ ] said he might consider returning near the end of 1970, but AMAUTO-1 did not say whether he would be [ ] in late 1970.
- H. AMAUTO-1 said he was suspicious when he first saw [ ] noting that the nature and importance of his position make him act suspicious, but the suspicion soon dissipated - so he said.

14. On saying their last goodbyes at the hotel, both men embraced and again promised to keep in touch through correspondence. At this point the operation was over. [ ] was met late that evening. He was taken to a new safehouse.

15. Accomplishments: We feel the objectives programmed and rehearsed were successfully fulfilled, perhaps far greater than our own expectations. Unless we are misjudging the shrewdness of AMAUTO-1 through our own naivete, we believe the relationship was sincerely re-established and a channel opened for future use by AMAUTO-1 should he desire to use this channel other than to maintain a friendly correspondence. It was unfortunate that his [ ] trip interfered possibly to the point of [ ] having one or two additional meetings with AMAUTO-1 nonetheless, in the six plus hours together, [ ] admirably fulfilled our requirements and courageously maintained the fiction of his visit [ ] We believe too, that although AMAUTO-1 appears to be solidly in favor of the [ ] regime, he did not criticize the United States which we feel he might have done had he suspected that [ ] visit [ ] was sponsored by the U.S. Government. AMAUTO-1 has come a long way since his internship as a butcher in the United States and probably realizes that while he retains a prodigious role [redacted] he will continue to give his loyalty and devotion to the regime. At the same time, we feel, AMAUTO-1 is an opportunist and might take advantage of the [redacted] channel should the current regime come to an end or his own position jeopardized by the vengeful attitude of his colleagues.

15. We would appreciate PACHANKIS doing the following:

- A. Purchase a dozen or so slides of Cape Kennedy and rocket launchings which will be sent to AMAUTO-1's son [redacted] [redacted] should prepare a letter to AMAUTO-1 as soon as the purchase is made extending his appreciation to AMAUTO-1 for spending his valuable time with [redacted] and repeating his desire to help in any way possible and not to hesitate doing so.

16. We again would like to extend [redacted] our appreciation for his support and full cooperation. Also, our thanks to [redacted] and PACHANKIS for their fine support.

Howard R. Sacerd
Howard R. SACODER

P.S. AMAUTO-1 was recalled on 30 June 1970 and his future is uncertain at this time; therefore, we suggest that [redacted] not mail any letters or send any slides to AMAUTO-1 [redacted]

1. Relative to Subject's recall [redacted] which came via a telephone call on 24 June (probably from MINREX) bidding him and [redacted] to return, QUDOZE has recorded Subject's reaction to the unexplained call as follows:

A. on 26 June Subject [redacted] at length with [redacted] Subject speculating on [redacted] possible motives for requesting his 921-235-216 return at this time, when in a matter of a few in latter weeks he was scheduled to travel [redacted] for the about to [redacted] celebrations which he expected to combine with his vacation leave. He was extremely frustrated upset and complained bitterly about [redacted] who have tried to discredit him [redacted] He wondered if [redacted] was going to put him on the carpet for charges brought against him [redacted] He recalled one [redacted] (he was not sure of the name) who last summer made false accusations against him, for which he received a letter of reprimand [redacted]

B. Subject also wondered if [redacted] could have any complaints about his work. He had always maintained good relations [redacted] and despite their contrary political ideology, he was careful not to ruffle their feathers while upholding his government's position at all times. He could not

Imagine that [ ] would question him on that score. However, if there were problems that [ ] felt he lacked the ability to resolve, he should simply be removed "because [ ] cannot resolve them." Subject said he had been a revolutionary since the age of 20 when he began to think for himself. He had never belonged to any political party [ ]

[ ] The current state of affairs, however, was becoming too disturbing and distasteful to him because conscientiously he knew that he was putting forth his full mental and physical capacity toward the fulfillment of his function.

C. Subject told [ ] that since he didn't know what was brewing [ ] it was possible that he might not return [ ] In any event he would designate [ ] to substitute for him

[ ] During the entire conversation no mention was made of [ ]

[ ] and why he was asked to return [ ] The latter seemed to be thoroughly absorbed in his own concern over whatever fate lay in store for him on his return [ ]

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES		(201-735296) and (201-788424)
1. At Christmas 1969, after turning down other invitations, AMMARTINI-1 and his wife accepted an invitation to dinner at the home of [redacted] (201-735296) and his wife [redacted]. Another couple was present [redacted] (201-788424) and his wife [redacted]. [redacted] impressed the AMMARTINI couple as intelligent and [redacted]. He talked very favorably of the U.S., especially New York City for which he had great admiration. "Americans are very bad", he said, "but they have very good things." [redacted] let's go to New York", he said at one point, causing a good revolutionary, some discomfort. He never had trouble in the five years he spent in the States [redacted] at another point in the conversation. 2. [redacted] is a "great apple polisher", according to the AMMARTINI couple, and he was hard put to know what to say when [redacted] his boss (indirectly) spoke so favorably of the U.S. AMMARTINI-1's wife, on the other hand, said that [redacted] was having a somewhat similar problem with [redacted]. The latter was expecting again at the time and after five boys [redacted] suggested that she [redacted] probably wished for a girl. Not at all", said [redacted] "I don't want a daughter of mine to go into agricultural work at fourteen years of age", she exclaimed setting [redacted] back. AMMARTINI-1 pointed out that the [redacted] couple has a 14 year-old son [redacted] a "hostage" while they are abroad. They might be willing to defect, according to AMMARTINI-1, if it weren't for leaving the boy [redacted].

Today we interviewed [ ] and her son, who at all times has maintained a positive attitude [ ] concerning her return. We have let her know that given the circumstances of her presence [ ] [ ] as the wife of a foreign doctor who has worked in our country - we saw no difficulty to prevent her from returning, especially taking into account the fact that she expressed herself as a revolutionary, but that first we had to receive official permission.

"In our opinion, because the situation in which she finds herself [ ] because of marriage to a foreigner, her return can be authorized, based on what has expired."
